

Cash flow- the lifeblood of your business

You are invited to a FREE seminar hosted by Westpac Cessnock

We understand that cash flow is the lifeblood of a business. That's why we are holding a special once-off event where we will be talking about the key drivers of cash flow.

This Westpac Financial Education seminar will cover the subtle changes to the financial management of your business that can result in real improvements to your cash flow. If you have any money tied up in debtors, stock or both then this seminar is for you.
